

Supporting Kidds

The Center for Grieving
Children and Their Families

Thank you for your continued support!

Bereavement support group starting March 12

Healing Pathways is our 6-week support group for children ages 5-18 who have lost a close relative. The children are grouped by age and meet others coping with their grief. Caregivers learn how to support their children.

Healing Pathways begins on Wednesday March 12 and continues through April 16, from 6:30-8pm each Wednesday.

Please contact us for more information or to register, email or 302-235-5544. Scholarships are available for all of our services to grieving children.

You can help --- tell a friend in need.

Do we really need a support group?

Isn't a support group just for people who are mentally ill or having a problem?

Bereavement support groups are actually intended to provide support for any person coping with grief. Support groups help to facilitate the normal grieving process, by offering information, support, and validation of the typical experiences and challenges that a person or a family faces during times of loss and grief. For children ... click to continue reading.

Welcome UD student interns!

Welcome to Molly, Lianne, and Tiffany from the University of Delaware. Lianne and Molly are both Human Services majors. Their degree requires an internship with a local human services agency. Lianne, a senior will be here 400 hours during the semester (full time). Molly, a junior, will be here 50 hours this semester. And Tiffany, a senior psychology major, will be here two days a week for her 100 hour internship.

Grief Doesn't Wait

We offer therapy services, consultations, and assessments Monday-Friday. You can talk to a therapist without waiting for our next support group.

Thanks to our generous donors, we can offer full and partial scholarships for our clinical services.

Donations always appreciated!

Your donation helps ensure that no child grieves alone.

Corporate Sponsors

Thank you all for choosing Supporting Kidds as your internship placement.

Grant Update

Through a generous year-long grant from Highmark Delaware, called BluePrints for the Community, we have implemented our new electronic health records and billing system. All staff have been trained and we are currently transitioning to this new system.

Services in Spanish

We have added a variety of Spanish books to our extensive library, a valuable resource provided at Supporting Kidds.

Therapy Groups in schools

Starting this month, we will be offering a bereavement support group at William Penn High School and trauma grief component therapy groups at both Skyline Middle School and PS DuPont Middle School .

This program is possible through the generous funding from The Laffey-McHugh Foundation and the Chichester DuPont Foundation.

Stewards of Children training program

Our friends at Christ Church Christiana Hundred are offering free training for adults on how to prevent, recognize, and react responsibly to child sexual abuse. Upcoming training dates are April 3 (5:30-8pm) and May 14 (5:30-8pm). Registration is necessary. For more information see www.d2l.org or call 610-324-2326.

Thank you for your interest and support,
Dr. Stephanie Traynor, PsyD, MBA
Executive Director
