Supporting Kidds

The Center for Grieving
Children and Their Families

Thank you for your continued support!

Yoga and Relaxation for Grieving Children

Join us on Wednesdays, May 7, 14, 21, 28 for fun and relaxing evenings of yoga to help aid in the grief process. This program is open to grieving children, ages 5-18, and their caregivers. Children will practice yoga, mindfulness, and other stress reducing activities, while adults will explore ways to manage their own stress while parenting bereaved children.

Please contact us for more information and to register at 302-235-5544 or support@supportingkidds.org

Mark Your Calendars: May 9th, 2014

The annual Party on the Patio event is quickly approaching! Come and enjoy delicious food and drink, live entertainment & a live and silent auction at Vicmead Hunt Club from 7-11 pm.

Grief Doesn't Wait

We offer therapy services, consultations, and assessments Monday-Friday. You can talk to a therapist without waiting for our next support group.

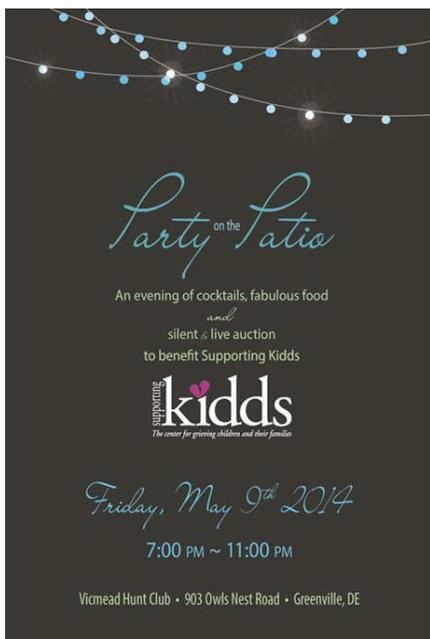

Thanks to our generous donors, we can offer full and partial scholarships for our clinical services.

Donations always appreciated!

Your donation helps ensure that no child grieves alone.

You can donate on our website or by mail:

Healing Pathways

Through our 6-week bereavement support group, children ages 5-18 who have lost a close relative, are grouped by age and meet others coping with their grief. Caregivers learn how to support their children. Our spring session is currently full and started last month.

To register for our fall session or learn more information, email or call 302-235-5544. Scholarships are available for all of our services to grieving children.

You can help --- tell a friend in need.

Services in Schools

Our school groups are underway!

The 9-week trauma grief component therapy groups started last week at Skyline Middle School and PS DuPont Middle School. The support group at William Penn High School is set to start this week. This group follows our 6-week Healing Pathways curriculum. Thank you again to The Laffey-McHugh Foundation and the Chichester DuPont Foundation for allowing us to bring our services into schools.
