COMING TO A CLOSE

Our Trauma grief component therapy for adolescence, held at various school locations, came to a close and received some great feedback! Here's what the PD DuPont Guidance Counselor had to say about Supporting Kids:

"Our staff at PS DuPont Middle School wanted to thank everyone at Supporting Kids for all that you did for our students this year.

They really enjoyed the group session and felt it was a very rewarding experience for them.

Many of our students suffer from past experiences that are very difficult to overcome. Having a support team to take the time to hear their emotional past and present experiences is therapeutic.

I have seen positive results from my observation of them interacting with their peers at school and listening to the feedback from their teachers. Again we are very appreciative of your support. "

For more information on bereavement support in your school, contact Stephanie Sklodowski, Clinical Director at Supporting Kids.
